

I am opposed to any weakening of Indiana's telephone privacy laws. Bankers should not be allowed any exemption, even though they may have "established business relationships". They can send info with statements or request specific and clear intentioned permissions from each customer.